IN PRELIMINARIES

MARINE STADIUM, Long Beach, Calif., July 7.—UP—The eight oared crews of Yale and Cornell became finalists in the pursuit of the national intercollegiate rowing championship by eliminating California in the first of the two preliminary heats held here this afternoon.

Yale took the lead at the 100 meters, the half way mark, and never lost it. The blue crew swept across the finish line a full length ahead of Cornell. California was two lengths behind Cornell.

Yale's winning time was 6:44.6.
Cornell finished in 6:49.2 and California was clocked at 6:55.6.

The record for the 2000 meter course is 6:28.2, set by Italy in the

Scouts to Try
Life In Wilds

An "Indian" camp for Contra Costa County Boy Scouts will open tomorrow at the Berkeley Scout camp in the hills east of here, with some 75 Richmond scouts in attendance.

Willard Merrill, Richmond Scout executive, will be director.
The boys will emulate the life of Indians in nature hikes, treasure hunts and other outdoor activities.

Each of them will contribute food gathered from their homes, however instead of the plains or mountains.

Besides Merrill, the staff of the camp will be: Al Coughlin, assistant director; Dr. L. H.
Fraser, physician; Lewis R. Hall, chef; Lester Geyer, mess sergeant, and Russell Tackley, officer of the day.

WEATHER

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA—Fair Saturday and Sunday but overcast with fog on the coast; and thunderstorms Saturday over the Sierras; and Northern Sierra ranges; normal temperature; moderate to fresh northwest winds off shore.

SAN FRANCISCO BAY REGION —Fair and mild Saturday and Sunday, but overcast night and morning; moderate westerly winds.

'ROUND 'N' 'ROUND

Let's see now, where did we leave our hero?

Oh yes, he had just fallen from his stumbling horse in the path of a hundred stampeding cows.

He was scrambling to his feet for a hopeless effort to outrun the cows.

Suddenly at his side, coming almost out of space, a voice said, "Grab my stirrup" and a hand reached for his boot.

In a split second he was hoisted up and was half on half clinging to a cowboy's boy's horse.

That's what is called arriving in the nick of time.

His pal carried him out of danger and deposited him on a little rise far from the terrified cattle.

There, he said, he planned to stay until the stampede had passed.

Suddenly it occurred to him that his horse was gone.

That, for a cowboy, seems to be the ultimate calamity.

And, he confessed, he sat right down on a rock and began to bawl.

Just bawl, he said, no silent heaving of chest over a broken heart.

He out and out cried for his precious horse which by this time he fancied would be a mangled piece of flesh from the hooves of the maddened herd.

And at that moment the horse walked over the top of the rise and whinnied.

He was unscratched and very glad to see his master.

A touching end to a thrilling yarn which sounded much better when told by the former cowboy in his own lingo.

$250,000 Train Wreck Kills 2; Many Are Hurt

TRINIDAD, Tex., July 7.—UP—Two persons were killed and two others injured today when a fast cotton belt freight train bound from St. Louis to the Rio Grande valley was derailed while crossing a creek trestle a mile east of here. Fifteen cars left the tracks.

There was a possibility that others than Lee Hamilton, 20, of Fayette Springs, Tex., and Jim Merrill of Corsicana, the two known dead, were killed but it may be several days before the toll is definitely known.

About sixty persons were on the train, riding "blind," according to the crew.

Hamilton's cousin, Jack Hamilton and L. L. Whitlick, Springfield, Mo., were painfully hurt.
Railroad officials estimated the property loss at $250,000.

High Official Presides Over Vet's Meeting

Ralph Wood, senior vice commander, presided over the meeting of Admiral Dewey camping United Spanish War Veterans, last evening. W. U. Avery, commander is away on a vacation trip.

Otto A. Poulsen was named delegate from Dewey camp to the national encampment to begin in Los Angeles on August 20.

Interesting talks on veterans legislation were given by two visitors, J. B. Wall, department patriotic instructor from Berkeley, and J. M. Holmes of San Francisco.

On Monday, July 17, a large delegation from the local camp will go to Oakland to assist in the installation of a new camp.
The first meeting will be in the Fremont high school auditorium, Pothill boulevard and Forty-seventh avenue. Dewey camp will be accompanied by its colors.

Jimmy Actually Gets Good Idea

SACRAMENTO, July 7.—UP—Governor Rolph today urged that California employers cooperate with President Roosevelt by increasing wages.

"Employers who have cut wages should restore them," said the governor.

"The policy of employers should be to help recovery, knowing that prosperity cannot be restored unless the working man and woman is getting a 'saving' wage." The sooner labor commands proper wages, the sooner we'll have recovery, prosperity and contentment."

STATE WITNESS FLOODS TAKE IN CULT TRIAL MANY LIVES DENIES CRIME IN COLORADO

MARTINEZ, July 7. UP—Fabilo Bustamante, the state's chief witness in the trial of seven Filipinos charged with burying an unfaithful wife while she yet lived, ended his testimony here today with strong denials that he himself had killed the woman.

The trial was adjourned until Tuesday morning, when Dr. John Craft will tell for the state how he believes the woman, Mrs. Cecilia Navarro, 29, met death.

The defense contends that Bustamante killed Mrs. Navarro after she had been adjudged guilty of infidelity at a Filipino lodge meeting at Stockton.

The state holds that the seven defendants, of whom Leon Kin-tunilla, labor camp foreman, is the leader, took the woman to Jersey island in the San Joaquin river, floored her, bound her and hurled her alive.

Denies Everything Emphatic denials were lodged by Bustamante, an official of the Filipino lodge, as the defense attorneys sought to impeach his testimony in cross examination.

He denied he choked Mrs. Navarro to death in a hall at Stockton November 20.

He denied he gagged her with his hand while killing her.

He denied he pointed a gun at others in the room and forced them to sign a paper pledging secrecy.

He denied he had offered to give testimony favorable to Vicente Kang, a defendant, for $100.

He denied he had asked E. R.
Lawang, proprietor of a hotel at Salinas, for $200 to use in hiring attorneys for Kang and Corder, another defendant.

He denied asking Kintunilla for permission to sell wine among the work camps on Jersey island and denied that he threatened Kin-tunilla and his wife when he was refused permission.

He denied that the reason he was tied up by other Filipinos in April was that he had threatened the Kintunillas.

Gun Produced Superior Judge Johnston permitted introduction in evidence of a gun alleged by the defense to be the property of Bustamante.

Bustamante denied, however, that he owned the gun—the one said to have been waved in the lodge room—and asserted it was the property of R. A. Lopez, actually grand master of the Filipino lodge.

He said he had seen the gun in a drawer used by Lopez at the lodge. Lopez, he said, directed him to investigate the Navarro death.
Bustamante's testimony earlier was that 20 Filipinos formed the group that seized Mrs. Navarro after she had been adjudged guilty of infidelity and took her to the burial spot.

Pushed Into Grave
He quoted Kang as having told him that Mrs. Alberta Asis and Mrs. Maria Galvez, two of the defendants and each mother of seven children, pushed Mrs. Navarro into the grave.

Louis Totman, deputy sheriff of San Joaquin county, testified that Bustamante reported the crime to him April 1. He and other officers, directed by Bustamante, found the grave covered by four inches of ash and removed the woman's body.

Mrs. Navarro's hands were tied behind her back, at the elbows, and her legs were bound at the knees, said Totman. He told of arresting five of the defendants in nearby labor camps.

CARRIER LOADS MUTIONS MARE ISLAND, July 7.—To load

Richmond Girl Swallows Slug; Doc to Rescue

Rose Bryson, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bryson, son of 651 Second street, was rushed to a Martinez hospital yesterday when she swallowed a slug while eating slug.

Success followed efforts of doctors in dislodging the piece of metal.
al. When it passed into the child's stomach, she was permitted to return to her home.

Within two weeks, two Richmond children have swallowed such objects and have received medical attention to dislodge them from their throats.

Dead Man Found on Shore Identified

VALLEJO, July 7.—The body of a man found on the west shore of Mare Island near the Seals Point Toll road today was identified today as that of Eddie Winthorpe 37.

Winthorpe, a seaman on a vessel which touched at Port Costa about seven weeks ago, fell overboard from the ship and was lost.

Arrangements for the funeral are being made by the J. J. McDonald Mortuary.

Poulsen Put On State Committee

Otto A. Poulsen, Richmond businessman and veteran, received notification yesterday that he had been appointed by Governor James Rolph as a special commissioner on committee.

The committee of which Poulsen will be the only Contra Costa county representative will investigate and record the history of the Spanish American war.

Oregon Governor Must Miss Meet

SALEM, Ore., July 7.—UP—Governor Julius L. Meier of Oregon will not attend the annual governors' conference which he begins at Sacramento, Calif., July 23.

"Coming on the heels of a special election, state business will be at its peak, and it will be my duty to remain in Oregon," the governor said.

President Roosevelt to Press Keys for Bay Span Dedication

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—UP—The ground breaking ceremonies for the projected $55,000,000 San Francisco-Oakland bay bridge will be the largest span in the world, will be held Sunday at Yerba Buena Island.

A celebration as impressive as the great engineering project itself is planned. Governor James Rolph, Jr. will sink a spade in the neat lawn in front of the Admiral's residence on the island, marking the spot where hard-rock miners will start the tunnel that will pierce the island and form the centerpiece of the gigantic structure.

President Roosevelt will then press a golden key at Washington, setting off three blasts—one to be the island, one on Rincon Hill, San Francisco, and a third at the foot of 14th street, Oakland.

Mattern Flashes Word Of Safety From Far North

Mattern, popular young Texan aviator, missing since June and on a projected world flight from New York, was reported alive and well tonight at the little trading post of Anadisk, on the Anadyr river, in far northeastern Siberia, a desolate region just under the Arctic Circle. He left Khabarovsk, Siberia, for Nome, Alaska, on June 14.

Mattern's safety was related in a brief message signed by him received by Soviet aviation officials this afternoon. It was sent July 5 from Bockanovo, on the Chukotka peninsula, in Siberia, that contained no details.

In English Officials surmised that the message, written in English, was undoubtedly to the Russians at the trading post, and was forwarded either by telephone to Bockanovo for transmission to the government in Moscow.

The Soviet air ministry at once issued instructions to Mark Nye-vey, chief of the Northern Aviation Service, to contact Mattern and forward details of his situation and whether he needed help to return to civilization.

Shelley's service previously had been ordered to search for Mattern and all outposts were instructed to keep vigilant watch.
Shelley expressed surprise that Mattern by himself had been able to obtain his own means of informing the world of his whereabouts.

Far Off Route
Alexander Goncharov, vice chairman of civil aviation inspection, said Anadisk is 180 miles off Mattern's route from Khabarovsk to Nome, Alaska, his destination when he left Khabarovsk on June 11. He added, however, that this deviation was not surprising, in view of uncertain weather conditions over the northern Pacific and being out of the line Mattern disappeared.

Anadisk is in the Chukotka bay region, has no landing field and is sparsely populated.
The river traverses the center

Rockefeller to Celebrate 94th Birthday Today

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., July 7.— John D. Rockefeller will celebrate his ninety-fourth birthday anniversary tomorrow.

With him, at his Portauit Hills estate, will be his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Today, retired from business, the man who made millions in oil and gave millions to charities, research and education, looks back upon a lifetime reaching beyond the civil, Mexican and Indian wars to a very young nation.

New events corresponding chronologically with some of the outstanding dates of Rockefeller's career, although otherwise unrelated, form a cross section of American history.

Deputies Called to Avert Orchard Row

BRENTWOOD, July 7.—A score of deputy sheriffs were called in to Brentwood area today to guard against threatened trouble between apricot pickers and orchardists.

Sheriff R. R. Venale said he had been advised that many of the 5000 pickers in the district were preparing to demand an increase in wages from 15 cents to 20 cents per hour and packing company executives said they "feared trouble."

VISITING PARENTS

Mrs. Jessa Irwin left yesterday for Turlock where she will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R.
Smith. Mrs. Smith is ill and Mrs.
Irwin will remain with her for some time.

ACCORNERO PLANNED TO KILL LOCATI JURY FINDS

Testimony that Peter Accornero's attempted murder of Julio Locati and his own suicide were deliberate was given yesterday at the inquest into the shooting which took place here some weeks ago.

Accornero, according to the decision of the coroner's jury, died of bullet wounds self-inflicted and Locati, shot by the dead man, is still in the hospital and may be permanently incapacitated.

Frank Paganini and John Droglio both told the jury that Accornero had told them of planning an assault against Locati and then killing himself.

Droglio said Accornero had showed him the gun with which he meant to "get revenge." The deceased is said to have believed that he was permanently injured in a friendly wrestling match with Locati. No evidence of this injury was found in an autopsy, Coroner Aubrey Wilson said.

Other testimony regarding the shooting was given by Sende Ghi-della at whose home it took place.
Dr. Abbott Crum, Inspector Oliver Wylie and Patrolman Smith Ligon.

According to the witnesses, Accornero appeared at Ghidella's back door and asked for Locati.
When the latter appeared, the killer fired, wounding him critically.

Prior to the arrival of police, Accornero went to the front of the house and killed himself.

Father Poisons Himself, Son to Escape Poverty

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—UP—The "sorrel and son" life of A. Lewis Sulger, 46, and his ten year old son, Paul, reached a tragic end when the father poisoned the boy and himself, it was revealed today when the bodies were found in their humble apartment.

The unemployed painter gave his son poisoned coffee and then drank the poison himself when they had used the last of the money sent them by an elder son who is working at a civilian conservation corps camp.

The pair had been dead for 36 hours, it was estimated.
A dead kitten was in a paper bag. It was undetermined whether the father had killed it to prevent it from starving, or whether he had tested potency of the poison on the boy's pet.

Mrs. Agnes Carroll, manager of the apartment house, found the bodies when she entered the room with a pass key with a letter to the father from his son, Edward, 19, encamped at Castello, Calif.

The letter asked if the father and small boy had been hard pressed, and offered to send more money home by holding down incidental expenses.

Sulger and his younger son had been inseparable companions.

BRIDGE FETE MONEY

ALAMEDA, July 7.—Appropriation of $37 to cover the cost of Alameda's participation in the Trans-bay Bridge celebration next Sunday was voted today by the city council.

No Excuse for Elks to Miss Quentin Trips

A treat breakfast is the latest inducement for Richmond Elks to join the pilgrimage to San Quantin this morning.

There is no danger involved in the trip. It is only a visit and prison authorities assure all Elks that they will be let out again when they have inspected the institution.

Harry Botger last night announced that he would feed all Elks who missed breakfast in their rush to make the San Rafael boat. He will her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R.
Smith. Mrs. Smith is ill and Mrs.
Irwin will remain with her for
some time.

THUGS BIND WATCHMAN, LOOT CAFE

MODESTO, July 7.—Two men bound and gagged A. L. Hutton, 45, nightwatchman at the Nite Hawk Cafe, two miles north of Modesto early today and fled with three vending machines after making a futile search for cash, he reported to Sheriff Grat M. Hogan.

Stanley R. Briggs, criminal identification deputy, summoned to the cafe after the reported episode, said he found no trace of the men.

In the darkness, Hutton said he was unable to get a description of the pair. He declared he was awakened out of a sound sleep by stern orders of "Not to move, Dad, we won't hurt you."

A flour sack was used as a rag, according to Hutton, after which his arms and legs were tied with rope. Then men, it was reported, worked in the darkness.

After leaving Hutton tied to his bed, he said, they searched the premises and then departed.

He expressed the opinion they had gained entry by forcing open the front door with a wedge.

The nightwatchman told Briggs he was able to free himself from the bonds a short time after they had departed.

Before going, they took a pistol which Hutton said he kept under his pillow.

The cafe is operated by Cairus Vogelmann and is located on the Golden State Highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Spiers are both reported ill at their West Side home.

KNOW YOUR BUSINESS FIRMS

Eagle Cafe Is Now Under New Manager

Here in Richmond we are well represented by several cafes and eating places. And in this column we have pointed out the advantages of dealing with this or that firm. There is always a demand for a good first class place to eat, and the Eagle Creamery Cafe, which is located at 718 Macdonald avenue, is now under the management of E. L. Eddy, who has given every effort to give Richmond residents something a little bit better in the way of a first class eating place than is combined with the best of service and unusual atmosphere. The place has recently undergone a complete renovating and decorating, with two beautiful mural scenes, that enhance the atmosphere. Quality is the outstanding feature of this place, and then prices

Max Baer Plans Eastbay Return About July 16

Max Baer, outstanding challenger for the world's heavyweight title by reason of his 10-round knockout of Max Schmeling at New York recently, expects to arrive in Oakland about July 16.

A letter received by his mother, Mrs. Jacob Baer, stated he would be accompanied by Ancil Hoffman, his manager, and perhaps Jack Dempsey, who promoted the Baer-Schmeling bout.

Max's message indicated that he would come straight to Oakland from the East, remain there for a few days and then head for Los Angeles to fill a moving picture engagement.

Baer failed to mention whether he would take part in any boxing engagement before starting west.

Baptist Church Pays Honor to Rev. Wallace

The congregation of the First Baptist church last evening expressed its pleasure at retaining Rev. K. B. Wallace as pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace were tendered a delightful reception in the parlors of the church at which more than 200 persons were present.

Clyde Cook announced events of the evening which opened with an address of welcome by Rev. C. R. G. Poole, retired Baptist pastor.

Mrs. Lida Dearborn gave a fine reading and a saxophone solo was presented by Jack McLean accompanied by his mother, Mrs. E. M. Downer.

Mrs. W. P. Cooper and Mrs. Helen Macintosh gave a vocal duet with accompaniment by Mrs. Gilbert Dory.

Bennie Howden sang with piano accompaniment by his mother, Mrs. Ben Howden. Turner Brashear and one of his violin pupils each presented an instrumental solo.

Katherine Radcliffe and Elkes Carpenter presented a piano duet. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace were presented with gifts by Mrs. Elsie Christiansen on behalf of the congregation and Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Poole both received lovely corsages.

The social hall appeared particularly attractive with profuse decoration of flowers and foliage. The serving of refreshments closed the enjoyable evening. Mrs. Isaac McGuffin and Mrs. Ben Howden headed the committee of arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Neville of the West Side are leaving for Clear Lake Oaks where they will occupy their summer cottage until December.

RICHARD DIX, SOCIETY WIFE, HAVE PARTED

HOLLYWOOD, July 7.—UP—Richard Dix, motion picture star, and his wife, the former Winifred Cooper of San Francisco have separated, Dix admitted today.

The separation, however, does not necessarily indicate that a divorce is contemplated. Dix made plain.

"Winifred is the sweetest girl in the world," Dix declared.

"She will make some other man a splendid wife, but she and I don't speak the same language."

"She is not interested in motion pictures while I have the social life she enjoys. She desires only happiness and I think that she will find contentment that I did not seem able to give her."

Although it was rumored last fall Dix had separated from his wife, who was well known in San Francisco, they denied it at the time. Dix this year, Mrs. Dix gave birth to a daughter.

BEAR CARSMEN ARE BEATEN IN PRELIMINARIES

The slow time was attributed to head winds the crews had to fight and to the fact that Yale and Cornell were easy qualifiers and did not strain once they were certain California was behind.

Yale took a slight lead at the start but the three competitors remained so close together that a quarter of a boat length covered them at 500 meters.

With California second and Cornell third. They still were closely bunched but from here on Yale and Cornell started to pick up and California dropped behind.

WASHINGTON.

HARVARD WIN

MARINE STADIUM, Long Beach, Calif., July 7.—UP—Washington and Harvard won the right to compete with Yale and Cornell in tomorrow's final of the national intercollegiate rowing championship by eliminating the University of California at Los Angeles in the second of two heats held this afternoon.

Washington was four boat lengths ahead of Harvard, U. C. L. A. was a length behind Harvard. Washington's time was 6:40. Harvard finished in 6:56 and U. C. L. A. in 7:01 6.

FEDERAL AID AT MARTINEZ IS OUTLINED

MARTINEZ, July 7.—Inclusion of a municipal dock and a swimming pool in the list of projects for which the city council will ask Federal aid was seen as a possibility today following the announcement of a special committee to investigate the problem.

Plans for construction of a dock suitable for ocean going vessels, a transit shed and yacht harbor was voiced by City Attorney A. F. Bray who said that he had received assurance of substantial support in the event that dock and harbor facilities are made available.

A large industrial concern has promised that it would make extensive use of the wharf if built, according to Bray, and a San Francisco spokesman said that a revenue of at least $100 a month could be expected if a harbor adequate to accommodate 13 yachts is created.

George Calder, head of a San Francisco construction engineering concern has been asked to appear before the committee at a special session next Wednesday to present plans on dock construction.

Proposal for the inclusion of the swimming pool was made by Councilmen Frank Brady and Eric Stevens.

Four Endangered In Martinez Fire

MARTINEZ, July 7.—Damage amounting to more than $1500 was caused by a fire which endangered the lives of four persons early this morning at the home of Louis Rampoldi on West Soto street.

Awakened by the sound of sirens on the approaching fire engines, Rampoldi roused Henry Rampoldi, John Rampoldi and M. A. Martin and they fled to the street.

The flames were first noticed by nurses at the Community hospital who telephoned the fire department.

Fire Chief John Briones reported that the blaze was apparently caused by defective wiring.

of the Chukotka region of northern Siberia, north of Kamchatka, and flows into the Bering sea directly opposite Alaska.

EXPEDITIONS TO GO TO RESCUE IF NEEDED

A cryptic telegram out of isolated Siberia, telling the world that Jimmie Mattern, round-the-world flier, was safe at Anadark, brought plans for the dispatch of at least three expeditions to his rescue.

Mattern, who disappeared four weeks ago, had been all but given up for dead.

The Soviet Russian government instructed its northern air service chief, Mark Shvelley to contact Mattern and determine whether he needed to be returned to civilization.

Planes All Ready

A Brooklyn, N. Y., brewer who financed an airplane expedition to search for the lost flier, said the expedition, under William Alexander, is ready to start from Terrace, B. C., within 24 hours to bring Mattern back to North America.

The United States coast guard service in Washington radioed the coast guard cutter Northland, which is about 300 miles from Anadark to get in touch with Mattern with a view to bringing him back to the United States on the vessel.

In Chicago the men who backed Mattern's world flight received a telegram from him, slightly garbled and signed "Gimmie Mattern," but indicating he was safe at Anadark. They signified their willingness to extend further assistance to Mattern, either for the completion of the present flight or for another attempt.

284,000 TONS OF PEACHES IS 1933 ESTIMATE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—California growers will produce about 284,000 tons of number one peaches during 1933, which, when packed, will constitute 13,000,000 cases according to estimate made today by Federal Director A. Kauf of the United States State Department Service.

Fauffman made a survey of the state's peach production in the equivalent of the summer season. He is working on a statistical report for the industry in accordance with provisions of the National Recovery Act.

Details of the stabilization program are going completed swiftly according to members of a special committee reporting yesterday to representatives of the peach canning industry at the state house.

If present plans mature, the 1933 peach pack will be limited to 9,000,000 cases, but the question of allocating the pack is still to be settled.

Growers have asked $20 a ton on the fruit, that is to be packed plus the surplus. Canners have offered to boost the price of fruit to be packed to $22.50 a ton, with the understanding the added $2.50 will go into a pool to pay for the uncanned fruit.

Siberia is authentic.

"I am very happy and tremendously relieved," she told the United Press.

"I have had no definite word myself, but I have every hope that the message is authentic. I have never given up hope at any time that he was safe. He has a way of turning up when you least expect him."

She said she felt all along that he was not killed when he disappeared June 16 on a flight from Khabarovsk, Siberia to Nome, Alaska.
